Luigi Attademo

is a highly respected and much admired Italian classical guitarist based in Florence. He has a wide-ranging repertoire spanning the 16th to the 21st centuries. He has been awarded many prizes for his playing, and has also obtained a PhD for his research into musical interpretation. His most recent recordings include the complete Bach suites and (just published) works by Paganini transcribed for viola and guitar duo. He is visiting Weston to record a new CD of sonatas by Scarlatti.

His programme for us (also performed this April in Madrid) will include ten sonatas by Scarlatti (these are almost all single-movement works!), interspersed with 20th century pieces by modern Spanish composers:

Manuel de Falla: Homenaje pour le tombeau de Claude Debussy

Joaquin Turina: Fandanguillo

Federico Morena Torroba: Notturmo

Roberto Gerhard: Fantasia

For our final concert this Spring we welcome back the celebrated Paraguayan guitarist Berta Rojas, on Saturday 20th June.

All our concerts are supported by the Arts Council for North Herts. Weston Music Society is a registered charity, no. 1154759
