Berta Rojas

The celebrated Paraguayan classical guitarist Berta Rojas visited Weston in August 2010 and captivated her audience. We are delighted that she has accepted our heartfelt invitation to repeat the experience, this time as part of a British tour encompassing Liverpool, Bristol and Southampton as well as masterclasses at the Guildhall.

Berta Rojas is a specialist in the music of her compatriot Agustin Barrios, whose music will form the second half of her recital. Her programme will also include pieces from Vincent Lindsey-Clark's new suite Fiesta Americana, dedicated to her.

Praised by the Washington Post as a “guitarist extraordinaire” and by the Classical Guitar magazine as “ambassador of the classical guitar”, her musicianship and cordiality make her an audience favourite.

In the last few months Berta Roja has been touring South America - Brazil, Paraguay, Honduras, Costa Rica, Honduras and Trinidad - with renowned jazz saxophonist and clarinettist Paquito D’Rivera. Their new CD A Day and a Half has just been nominated for Best Instrumental Album by the Latin Grammys.

Concert supported by the Arts Council for North Herts.
