

The Carrivick Sisters

Acclaimed South Devon folk musicians
Laura and Charlotte Carrivick
sing and play American bluegrass style
on guitar, mandolin, banjo, dobro and fiddle

Weston Parish Church
Saturday 19th November at 7.30 pm

Tickets £12.00 (under 19 free) from David's Music,
Weston Stores or ring 01462 790573

Supported by the Arts Council for North Herts.

The Carrivick Sisters are twins Laura and Charlotte Carrivick from South Devon. They play a variety of bluegrass instruments (mainly guitar, mandolin, banjo, dobro and fiddle) with vocal harmonies and are both songwriters. Although their background is in bluegrass, their music has a strong folk influence which is evident in their original songs, many of which are inspired by their local landscape and stories.

The Carrivick Sisters are experienced performers, having played all over the UK, in Europe, and in Canada. They have recorded four CD's so far, with "From the Fields" released on the 22nd August 2011 to much critical acclaim.

The Carrivick Sisters first started performing as a duo in 2006, originally as buskers before starting to play more and more proper gigs, turning professional when they left school in 2007. As well as playing as 'The Carrivick Sisters', Laura and Charlotte have been a part of other larger bands: Blue South; Miles Apart; Banjo Accelerator; Kick Up the Grass; and currently 'Andsome and Some.

In 2007 they won the South West Buskers' and Street Entertainers' Competition, gaining themselves their first spot at Glastonbury Festival. In 2008 Laura achieved 2nd place at the RockyGrass Fiddle Contest in America. More recently, the Carrivick Sisters were finalists in the prestigious BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Awards 2010.

I am very impressed by The Carrivick Sisters, one of the best young duos I've heard. The girls sing and play as one and their work is characterised by great musicality. They are not only very talented instrumentalists and singers but they write really good songs as well." – Ralph McTell

This is Weston Music Society's last event in 2011. To keep up with our plans for 2012 join our mailing list by emailing simon@warrengreen.co.uk or ringing 01462 790214.