Manus Noble

Manus Noble is one of the most exciting and innovative of today's generation of young guitarists. Both a performer and a composer, Manus studied at the Royal College of Music under Gary Ryan and after graduating with first class honours was awarded a scholarship to do his Masters in Performance at the Royal Academy of Music in 2010, where he also graduated with Distinction in 2012. A multi-award winning guitarist, having performed throughout the UK and abroad, Manus Noble's exciting and varied concerts are in high-demand.

Manus comes back to Weston having recorded his first CD 'Nightshade' here with recording engineer John Taylor.

For us Manus will be playing Leo Brouwer's Un Dia de Noviembre, Roland Dyens's Libra Sonatine, Un Sueno en la Floresta by Agustin Barrios and two pieces by Gary Ryan - not to mention works by Dowland, Bruce MacCombie, Yuquijiro Yocoh and Takashi Yoshimatsu.

"The real discovery was the youthful and prodigiously gifted Manus Noble..the technical assurance and huge range of colours emanating from his instrument pushing the boundaries...Here was a persuasive concert performer, with an instantly appealing sound, evident technical flair and the confidence to project his own imaginative conception of each piece with an instinctive sense of style. Clearly a name to watch."
