Winners of the St. Martin's in the Fields Chamber Music Competition and the Martin Musical/Philharmonia Scholarship Fund 2010 the Piatti Quartet are fast emerging as one of the UK's leading young string quartets.

The Quartet's members are Charlotte Scott and Michael Trainor (violins), David Wigram (viola) and Jessie Ann Richardson (cello).

Previous recipients of the Tunnell Trust Award and selected as Park Lane Group Young Artists in 2009/2010, more recent news includes a second year as Leverhulme Chamber Music Fellows at the Royal Academy of Music and winning the St Peter's Eaton Square Prize 2011.

Since 2009 they have performed at the Purcell room, Southbank, and live on BBC Radio 3 numerous times. The Piatti Quartet had their Wigmore Hall debut in February 2011 and are looking forward to returning there in April 2012. 2011/12 will see the Quartet return to Madrid, studying on a full Scholarship with Gunter Pichler of the Alban Berg Quartet at the International Institute of Chamber Music of Madrid.

For us they will be playing Haydn's 'Emperor' Quartet Op 76 No 3, Debussy's only quartet and Schubert's 'Death and the Maiden', all well-known and loved stalwarts of the chamber-music repertoire.

Tickets are available from our usual sources - David's Music, Weston Stores or from Felicity Lowe (01462 790573 or felicitylowe@yahoo.co.uk)
