

The Tetra Guitar Quartet

All four members of Tetra are past winners of the Royal Academy of Music's Julian Bream Prize.

'This party-piece disc of the year achieves the impossible'. BBC Music Magazine

Weston Parish Church

Saturday 12th May 2012

at 7.30 pm

Tickets £12.00 (under 19 free) from David's Music,
Weston Stores or ring 01462 790573

Supported by the Arts Council for North Herts.

The Tetra Guitar Quartet

Formed in 1988, the Tetra Guitar Quartet quickly established a reputation as an innovative and virtuosic ensemble. Their unique repertoire and highly original programming has helped make the quartet one of the most influential and sought-after guitar ensembles on the scene today. The quartet's members are Carl Herring, Stephen Goss, Stewart French and Graham Roberts.

Tetra has toured and recorded extensively, playing at many top venues and festivals in the UK and overseas. The quartet has given numerous recitals at London's South Bank Centre, St John's Smith Square and the Barbican; recent tours have included trips to India, Germany, Italy, the Czech Republic, the UAE, Ireland, Saudi Arabia, Malaysia, Brunei and Borneo. Tetra has performed Rodrigo's Concierto Andaluz with some of Britain's top orchestras and has frequently broadcast on BBC Radios 2, 3 and 4 and Classic FM.

For us they will be playing a Suite from Kurt Weill's 'Threepenny Opera', a group of pieces by Mahler, some of Satie's 'Gnossiennes' and a Carmen Fantasy. All the works were written and/or arranged by Stephen Goss.

Tickets are available from our usual sources - David's Music, Weston Stores or from Felicity Lowe (01462 790573 or felicitylowe@yahoo.co.uk)

Lovers of the classical guitar may also like to know that on Saturday 13th October we will be hosting the celebrated Brazilian guitarist Fabio Zanon.